Do this by creating a gross sales web page for the new book, but don't include a price on that page. As a substitute, add a lot of links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to aid you in assigning a worth to your ebook.

Another strategy is to test out prices by creating a number of duplicate sales pages with different prices on every page. Ensure that your gross sales copy is strictly the same on each page, and consists of your promoting-handle sentence. Then figure out for every page the conversion ratio between guests to your website and sales of your book. This may let you know what your optimum value is.

In the end, when you've written a book that solves a problem or presents a new approach, your ebook will usher in each visitors and profits.
